- Reader Julia Schuurman
- Musicians Joan Van Dyke; Nate Jen; Matt Kraker;
Phil Van Eck; Alyssa Kraker; Anna Kreisman;
Claire Banaszak; Aaron Polet

Welcome to our church family!

We're glad you could join with us in our worship time today. We hope that you experience God's love in a new, refreshing way. If you are a guest, please stop by the Connection Center table before you leave.

WORSHIP NOTES

Our Worship Today—Pastor Henry will lead us in the next sermon in his series, QUESTIONS THEY ASKED JESUS.

Today's special offering is for Habitat for Humanity of Kent County. Seeking to put God's love into action, Habitat for Humanity brings people together to build homes, communities, and hope.

Our Worship Next Sunday—Calvin University's Capella Choir will minister to us in song. Pastor Henry's message will be based on Peter's question, "How many times shall I forgive...?" (Matthew 18:15-22).

Ash Wednesday—Wednesday, February 26, marks the beginning of Lent. At noon time on that day, Pastor Henry will lead a brief 20-minute service which will include the imposition of ashes on one's forehead to remind us of both our mortality and sorrow for sin.

PRAISES & CONCERNS

Thanks all of you for the prayers, cards, visits, and food during my recent hip surgery and recuperation. ~Bob DeBruin

CONGREGATIONAL NOTES

Council Note—The Council meets on February 18 and encourages you to contact your elder or deacon with nominees for the new Council starting this summer. Council's work is both important and fulfilling, particularly during our time of transition. Thank you for prayerfully considering and acting on this request.

Adult Education

- This Sunday is a Fellowship Sunday:
Households #2 and #5 will be having a potluck luncheon following the service at 11:15 AM in the Fellowship Room.
- February 23: How Do We Think about Immigration as Christians? How Can We Advocate for Change? We will conclude our three-part series on immigration. It's been an eye-opening time of learning and discussion on such an important subject.
- March 1: When Helping Hurts. A group of Shawnee members who have studied the book, "When Helping Hurts," will share their thoughts on what it means to serve others well, especially when it comes to domestic and international service trips. A special invite to the adults and youth who will be participating in upcoming trips!

Women's Bible Study

Tuesday, February 18, 9:30 AM

Songs from Scripture: Song of Humility

Leader: Jackie Timmer

Refreshments: Jeanne Engelhard, Ruth Wierenga

CPR/AED Training—This Thursday, February 20, 6 to 9 PM, a CPR/AED training class will be offered for Shawnee Park attendees. Please contact Char Bulthuis in the office by tomorrow, February 17, if you would like to attend.
