Indicates to stand if you are able*

Welcome to Shawnee Park Christian Reformed Church! We are glad you have chosen to worship with us today and pray God will bless your time here. Please stay after the service for coffee, which is served in the Great Room.

This morning Pastor Darrin will continue the series he began last week on the book of Jonah. Today we focus on verses 4-16 of Chapter 1. We follow Jonah, the reluctant and undeserving prophet, as he takes passage on a boat to Tarshish in an attempt to flee his God-given mission. Jonah's faithlessness is in strong contrast to the respect for God demonstrated by the pagan sailors. Yet despite Jonah's rebellion, God's purposes for him will be accomplished.

Please note that the positivity rate for COVID tests in Kent County this week has again risen, to 24%, which is considered very high. Masks, while optional, are available for those exercising caution. Also, we offer the right-hand set of pews where worshippers can sit in a socially distanced manner.

Today's Offering is for Christian Education Fund

The Christian Education Fund covers tuition assistance for families that have financial needs and is part of Shawnee Park's covenantal responsibility.
