Welcome to Shawnee Park!

We are glad you have chosen to worship with us, and we pray God will bless your time here.

This morning we will continue our Psalms of Ascent series Psalm 132; John 18:33-37 "Between Memory and Hope." This longest of the Songs of Ascent animates the way of faith and life between memory and hope. It recalls David's faithfulness and the journey of the ark to Zion. And it recalls the Lord's faithfulness and abundant promises of future blessing. And so, it calls pilgrims to live with creative obedience between memory and hope. It is also rich with themes (son of David, God's presence, salvation) that find their fulfillment in David's greater son, Jesus. His kingship is the hope of the world.

We will also celebrate Communion.

Today's Offering:

Tyler and Emily Robbert, Missionaries in Lesotho, Africa

This coming Thanksgiving, please give to any organization you would like to support, and the deacons will make sure it gets to that organization, even if we haven't supported them in the past.

The deacons would also like to remind you that as a church, we are committed to supporting Safe Haven, Roosevelt Park, Forgotten Man Ministries and Global Village Partners and we ask that you remember these ministries also with your offerings this Thanksgiving. The deacons are grateful for your continued support for our church and its ministries and those that are in the broader community as well.
